Radius Bank to be Exclusive Sponsor of Reserve Week in Boston

Bank teams up with Reserve digital concierge & Uber for wallet-free dining experiences this month

BOSTON, MA – As the exclusive sponsor of Boston’s first-ever Reserve Week, Radius Bank is offering additional rewards for those who participate in Reserve’s week-long celebration of inspired dining experiences taking place later this month from Sunday, April 26 through Saturday, May 2. Anyone who opens a new Radius Checking account and uses their Radius debit card as the Reserve app payment method will get $25 in Reserve credit on purchases of up to $250 and $50 on any tabs totaling over $250 for future use. More than 48 restaurants in Boston, Cambridge, Somerville, Brookline and Newton are participating in the week-long event during which diners who book using the Reserve concierge dining app will get free Uber rides, access to exclusive tasting menus, beverage pairings, off-menu items, custom cocktails and even a charitable contribution.

Reserve is waiving their concierge fee for everyone during Reserve Week, along with donating a portion of the week’s proceeds to a number of charities. Each restaurant participating in Reserve Week has selected a charity that is meaningful to them, totaling 34 deserving causes which will benefit from the week. Reserve will donate $20 to the charity of the restaurant’s choice for all first-time diners using Reserve and an additional $5 every time after that.

All Reserve Week participating restaurants support payment through the Reserve mobile app, so customers can leave their wallets at home. The tab gets settled through the app and Uber takes care of the transportation. With a new Radius Checking account set as the payment option, users automatically get $25 or $50 back as Reserve credit to put toward their next Reserve dining experience, and all current Radius checking customers will receive a $5 Reserve credit – which can be used to cover the concierge fee after Reserve Week.
